

Thank you for your interest in our community and preservation of our beautiful downtown. Enclosed is a list of organizations, contact names and forms needed to help your project run smoothly. Our very best wishes on your new venture and for continued success.

Organizations Here to Help

Historic Landmarks and Preservation Commission

Historic Landmarks and Preservation Commissions (HLPC) is a City of Columbus organization that helps preserve and restore the historic integrity of our downtown.

Help is available on:

- Applications
- Permits
- Design

The second Wednesday of every month at 5:00 pm are the HLPC meetings. Meeting dates and times are subject to change. Please visit the City of Columbus website for agendas:

Columbus, WI | Official Website \(cityofcolumbuswi.com\)

Contact: John Salzwedel / 608.212.3250 / johnswazz@gmail.com

Columbus Downtown Development Corporation

PO Box 23, Columbus, WI 53925

Keeping Downtown the Heart of our Community

Columbus Downtown Development Corporation (CDDC) is a nonprofit, volunteer-based organization that for more than 20 years has provided services to our downtown historic district.

Resources CDDC offers include:

- Small business consulting
- Sign grants (when funding is available)
- Awning grants (when funding is available)
- Schematic renderings of most downtown buildings
- Business incubation program

Facebook: VisitDowntownColumbus

Bob O'Brion, President: 920.623.2281 / obifoto@charter.net

JD Milburn, Vice President: 608.957.6080 / jdmilburn50@gmail.com

Jorie Habenicht, Secretary: 608-320-1248 / jorie.habenicht@gmail.com

City Hall

105 North Dickason Boulevard

920.623.5900 / www.cityofcolumbus.com

Monday through Friday 8:00am to 4:30pm